

Skjold Lodge

Skjold Lodge is part of Sons of Norway, the largest Norwegian-American organization in the world, with over 66,000 members and over 400 lodges.

Our lodge is 100 years old and while some members come to meetings from 30 miles away, we primarily serve individuals in the Northwest suburbs of Chicago who want to learn more about Norwegian culture and heritage or would simply like to spend some time with others who love this wonderful country.

Each month we have a brief business meeting, our program for the day, and food, beverages, fellowship, and good conversation.

Sons of Norway promotes Norwegian traditions and fraternal fellowship through the cultural and social opportunities offered in local lodge and district lodge activities.

These activities include language camps and classes, scholarships, handicrafts, cooking and heritage classes, heritage programs, sports programs, travel opportunities, Viking Magazine, and outreach programs sponsored by the Sons of Norway Foundation.
